In Plain Sight: Public Art in Santa Barbara, a City TV documentary produced in collaboration with the Santa Barbara County Arts Commission and Santa Barbara Beautiful, will screen at the 2008 Santa Barbara International Film Festival. Produced and directed by City TV's Tony Ruggieri and Christy Zwicke, the film examines Santa Barbara's rich tradition of public art and follows its progression from ancient Chumash cave paintings to modern installations like Herbert Bayer's Chromatic Gate. It also explores a wide variety of murals, sculptures, and fountains in the city, while illuminating the often challenging process of getting new pieces approved and installed.

The film will be shown at 12:30 p.m. Saturday at Victoria Hall, 33 W. Victoria St., and at 1 p.m. Jan. 29 at Center Stage Theatre in Paseo Nuevo. For more information, visit City TV or call 805.564.5311.
